

Request for Consent to Park Form

Campers, trailers, vans, recreational vehicles, and other types of non-passenger vehicles and accessories, including boats and snowmobiles, shall be stored in outside parking spaces only upon written consent from the Board. The Board may authorize such vehicles and items parked in violation of this provision to be towed and any such towing charge shall become a lien on the Unit Owner if he owns the vehicle or item or his Occupant owns same.

As of October 12, 2012, an area in the northwest area of the Stonebridge Condominium parking lot was labeled and set aside for the parking of trailers and boats. The area is available between the dates of April 1 and October 31 of a given year. It is 1st come 1st served and parking of non-motorized vehicles is prohibited in other areas of Stonebridge's parking lot. Vehicles violating the parking rules will be subject to towing and storing at the owner's expense.
